

MAC and WAC to play in Humanitarian Bowl

April 8, 2010
CBSSports.com wire reports

PRINT SEND RSS SHARE

BOISE, Idaho -- Teams from the Mid-American and Western Athletic conferences will play in the Humanitarian Bowl for the next four years.

The third selection of bowl-eligible MAC teams will participate in the bowl, played at Boise State. The WAC is committed to sending one of its top teams.

Last year's Humanitarian Bowl on Dec. 30 saw Idaho edge Bowling Green 43-42. It received a 2.4 rating on ESPN, tying for the game's highest rating, set the previous year by Maryland and Nevada.

Roady's sponsors the Humanitarian Bowl.

Copyright 2010 by STATS LLC and The Associated Press. Any commercial use or distribution without the express written consent of STATS LLC and The Associated Press is strictly prohibited.

Headlines

- Spring cleaning
- NCAA visits WVU regarding possible rules violations
- Dodd: JoePa drops bomb? 'I think expansion is coming'
- Dodd: NCAA may address sickle cell concerns today
- Pizza Bowl to pit Big Ten, MAC teams through 2013
- QB Brantley looks sharp in Florida's spring game
- Alabama potential starter

Ad Feedback

Experience why we're #1.

Talk Back

carliledevils	April 8, 2010 7:02 pm	Log-in to rate: ★★★★★	Score: 148
Reputation: 98			